RECOMMENDED CASH AND SHARE COMBINATION OF DOWLAIS GROUP PLC
WITH DAUCH CORPORATION

to be effected by means of a scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006

COURT SANCTION OF SCHEME OF ARRANGEMENT

On 29 January 2025, the boards of Dowlais Group plc (“Dowlais”) and Dauch Corporation (“Dauch”) (formerly American Axle & Manufacturing Holdings, Inc.) announced that they had agreed the terms of a recommended cash and share combination of Dowlais with Dauch, pursuant to which Dauch will acquire the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of Dowlais (the “Combination”) to be effected by way of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement (the “Scheme”) under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006 (the “Act”). The scheme document in relation to the Scheme (the “Scheme Document”) was published on 19 June 2025.

Further to the announcement made by Dauch and Dowlais on 22 July 2025 in relation to the results of the Court Meeting and General Meeting and the announcement made on 16 January 2026 in relation to the satisfaction of all Conditions relating to the receipt of regulatory or antitrust approvals, Dowlais and Dauch are pleased to announce that the Court has today issued the Court Order sanctioning the Scheme.

The Scheme will become effective on delivery of the Court Order to the Registrar of Companies, which is expected to occur after the Scheme Record Time, being 6:00 p.m. on 2 February 2026. It is anticipated that the Effective Date will be 3 February 2026.

There has been no material change to the expected timetable of principal events for the Combination set out in the announcement made by Dauch and Dowlais on 16 January 2026.

The deadline for submitting a Tax Certification Form (or such other forms as must be provided by a Qualified Intermediary) in order to not have part of the cash consideration due under the Combination withheld at Completion has passed. The attention of Dowlais Shareholders who have not validly returned such forms is drawn to the Second Tax Certification Return Time, being 11.00 a.m. on the day falling 40 calendar days after the despatch of payment of the cash consideration due under the Combination. Failure to complete and return such forms by this time will result in any cash consideration withheld from a Dowlais Shareholder being paid to the IRS and a Dowlais Shareholder will need to file a U.S. federal income tax return to reclaim any withheld consideration.

If you are in any doubt as to how to complete the Tax Certification Form, please contact Dowlais' Registrar, Equiniti, by calling the Shareholder Helpline on +44 (0)333 207 6394, further details of which are set out in the Scheme Document.

The last day of dealings in, and for the registration and transfer of, Dowlais Shares, will be 2 February 2026. No transfers of Dowlais Shares will be registered after 6:00 p.m. on 2 February 2026.

Publication of Dauch Prospectus

On 29 January 2026, the Financial Conduct Authority (the “FCA”) approved the prospectus (the “Prospectus”) in connection with the admission of shares of common stock in the capital of Dauch to the equity shares (international commercial companies secondary listing) category of the Official List (the “Official List”) of the FCA and to trading on the main market for listed securities (the “Main Market”) of the London Stock Exchange (the “LSE”) as part of the Combination. A copy of the Prospectus will shortly be available on Dauch’s website at www.aam.com/investors/UK-Listing-Prospectus. The Prospectus will shortly be submitted to the National Storage Mechanism and will be available for inspection at <https://data.fca.org.uk/#/nsm/nationalstoragemechanism>.

Suspension and cancellation of listing and trading of Dowlais Shares

Applications have been made for the suspension of: (i) trading in Dowlais Shares on the Main Market; and (ii) the listing of Dowlais Shares on the Official List, and such suspensions are expected to take effect from 7:30 a.m. on 3 February 2026.

Applications have also been made for: (i) the de-listing of Dowlais Shares from the Official List; and (ii) the cancellation of the admission to trading of Dowlais Shares on the Main Market, and such de-listing and cancellation will, subject to the Scheme becoming Effective, take effect from 8:00 a.m. on 4 February 2026.

The final version of the Scheme approved by the Court, which contains minor technical amendments to cater for a sanctioned shareholder, will be made available on Dauch’s website at www.aam.com/investors/offer-for-dowlais-group-plc and on Dowlais’ website at www.dowlais.com/investors.

Full details of the Combination are set out in the Scheme Document published on 19 June 2025, which is also available on Dowlais’ website at www.dowlais.com. Capitalised terms used in this announcement shall, unless otherwise defined, have the same meanings as set out in the Scheme Document. All references in this announcement to times are to London time unless otherwise stated.

In particular, the ability of persons who are not resident in the UK or who are subject to the laws of another jurisdiction to participate in the Combination may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions in which they are located or to which they are subject. Any failure to comply with applicable legal or regulatory requirements of any jurisdiction may constitute a violation of securities laws in that jurisdiction. Additional information for U.S. investors in Dowlais

The Combination relates to the shares of an English company and is being made by way of a scheme of arrangement provided for under English company law. The Combination, implemented by way of a scheme of arrangement, is not subject to the tender offer rules or the related proxy solicitation rules under the U.S. Exchange Act. Accordingly, the Combination is subject to the disclosure requirements and practices applicable to a scheme of arrangement involving a target company in the UK listed on the London Stock Exchange, which differ from the disclosure requirements of the U.S. tender offer and related proxy solicitation rules.

The new shares of common stock of Dauch proposed to be issued to Dowlais Shareholders pursuant to the Combination (the "New Dauch Shares") have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act, and may not be offered or sold by Dauch in the U.S. absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act. The New Dauch Shares to be issued pursuant to the Combination will be issued pursuant to the exemption from registration set forth in Section 3(a)(10) of the U.S. Securities Act.

The Scheme Document will contain certain unaudited financial information relating to Dowlais that has been prepared in accordance with UK-endorsed International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and thus may not be comparable to financial information of U.S. companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. U.S. generally accepted accounting principles differ in certain significant respects from IFRS.

Dowlais is incorporated under the laws of a non-U.S. jurisdiction, some or all of Dowlais' officers and directors reside outside the U.S., and some or all of Dowlais' assets are or may be located in jurisdictions outside the U.S. Therefore, U.S. Dowlais Shareholders (defined as Dowlais Shareholders who are U.S. persons as defined in the U.S. Internal Revenue Code or "IRC") may have difficulty effecting service of process within the U.S. upon those persons or recovering against Dowlais or its officers or directors on judgments of U.S. courts, including judgments based upon the civil liability provisions of the U.S. federal securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-U.S. company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment. It may not be possible to sue Dowlais or its officers or directors in a non-U.S. court for violations of the U.S. securities laws.

The receipt of New Dauch Shares and cash by Dowlais Shareholders as consideration for the transfer of Dowlais Shares pursuant to the Combination may be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and under applicable U.S. state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws. Such consequences, if any, are not generally described herein. Each Dowlais Shareholder is urged to consult with legal, tax and financial advisers in connection with making a decision regarding the Combination, including in light of the potential application of Section 304 of the IRC to the Combination.

Further details in relation to US investors are contained on pages 62 to 71 and 113 to 115 of the Scheme Document.

Forward-looking statements

This announcement (including information incorporated by reference in this announcement), oral statements made regarding the Combination, and other information published by Dauch and Dowlais contain statements which are, or may be deemed to be, “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are prospective in nature and are not based on historical facts, but rather on assumptions, expectations, valuations, targets, estimates, forecasts and projections of Dauch and Dowlais about future events, and are therefore subject to risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results, performance or events to differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements contained in this announcement include statements relating to the expected effects of the Combination on Dauch and its subsidiary undertakings from time to time (the “Dauch Group”), the Dowlais Group and the Combined Group, such as the statements about the expected profitable growth, value-enhancing investments, sustainable capital returns and other characteristics of the Combined Group, the expected timing and scope of the Combination and other statements other than historical facts. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as “plans”, “expects”, “budgets”, “targets”, “aims”, “scheduled”, “estimates”, “forecast”, “intends”, “anticipates”, “seeks”, “prospects”, “potential”, “possible”, “assume” or “believes”, or variations of such words and phrases or statements that certain actions, events or results “may”, “could”, “should”, “would”, “might” or “will” be taken, occur or be achieved. Dauch and Dowlais give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks (known and unknown) and uncertainties (and other factors that are in many cases beyond the control of Dauch and/or Dowlais) because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future.

There are a number of factors that could affect the future operations of the Dauch Group, the Dowlais Group and/or the Combined Group and that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These factors include the satisfaction (or, where permitted, waiver) of the Conditions, as well as additional factors, such as: domestic and global business and economic conditions; the impact of pandemics, asset prices; market-related risks such as fluctuations in interest rates and exchange rates, industry trends, competition, changes in government and regulation, changes in the policies and actions of governments and/or regulatory authorities (including changes related to capital and tax), changes in political and economic stability (including exposures to terrorist activities, the UK’s exit from the European Union, Eurozone instability, disruption in business operations due to reorganisation activities, interest rate, inflation, deflation and currency fluctuations), the timing impact and other uncertainties of future or planned acquisitions or disposals or offers, the inability of the Combined Group to realise successfully any anticipated synergy benefits when the Combination is implemented (including changes to the board and/or employee composition of the Combined Group), the inability of the Dauch Group to integrate successfully the Dowlais Group’s operations and programmes when the Combination is implemented, the Combined Group incurring and/or experiencing unanticipated costs and/or delays (including IT system failures, cyber-crime, fraud and pension scheme liabilities), or difficulties relating to the Combination when the Combination is implemented. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could affect future operations and/or cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements should therefore be construed in the light of such factors. It is not possible to foresee or identify all such factors.

Each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of this announcement. Neither the Dauch Group nor the Dowlais Group, nor any of their respective associates or directors, officers or advisers, provides any representation, warranty, assurance or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements in this announcement will actually occur. Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. All forward-looking statements contained in this announcement are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Other than in accordance with their legal or regulatory obligations (including, without limitation, under the Code, the UK Market Abuse Regulation, the DTRs and applicable U.S. securities laws), neither the Dauch Group nor the Dowlais Group is under or undertakes any obligation, and each of the foregoing expressly disclaims any intention or obligation, to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. For a discussion of important risk factors that could cause Dauch's actual results to differ materially from the expectations in the forward-looking statements, see Part I, Item 1A. under the heading "Risk Factors" in its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024 and Part II, Item 1A under the heading "Risk Factors" in its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2025, filed with the SEC which also contain additional information regarding forward-looking statements with respect to Dauch.

No profit forecasts, estimates or quantified financial benefits statements

No statement in this announcement is intended as a profit forecast or estimate for any period and no statement in this announcement should be interpreted to mean that earnings or earning per ordinary share, for Dowlais or Dauch, respectively, for the current or future financial years would necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings or earnings per ordinary share for Dowlais or Dauch, respectively.

Disclosure requirements of the Code

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Code, any person who is interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the offer period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the tenth business day (as defined in the Code) following the commencement of the offer period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the tenth business day (as defined in the Code) following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure. Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s), save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the business day (as defined in the Code) following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3. Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4). Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the offer period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. You should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0)20 7638 0129 if you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure.
